Eiffel Tower

The Eiffel Tower is perhaps the most iconic landmark in Paris. This wrought-iron tower was built in 1889 for the World's Fair. It stands 1,063 feet tall and offers stunning views of the city. Visitors can take a lift to the top of the tower for a truly unforgettable experience.

Louvre Museum

The Louvre Museum is one of the world's largest and most famous museums. It is home to a vast collection of art and artifacts from around the world. Some of the most famous works in the Louvre include the Mona Lisa, the Venus de Milo, and the Winged Victory of Samothrace.

Notre Dame Cathedral

Notre Dame Cathedral is a Gothic masterpiece that is one of the most visited churches in the world. It was built in the 12th century and is known for its stunning stained-glass windows and its massive rose window. Notre Dame Cathedral is currently undergoing renovations after a devastating fire in 2019.

Arc de Triomphe

The Arc de Triomphe is a triumphal arch that was built in the 19th century to commemorate the victories of the French army. It stands at the end of the Champs-Élysées and offers stunning views of the city. Visitors can climb to the top of the arch for a truly unforgettable experience.

Palace of Versailles

The Palace of Versailles is a former royal palace that is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It was built in the 17th century and is known for its opulent architecture and gardens. Visitors can tour the palace and its gardens, and they can also watch a performance of the Royal Opera.

Musée d'Orsay

The Musée d'Orsay is a museum that is dedicated to the art of the 19th century. It is home to a vast collection of paintings, sculptures, and other works of art from this period. Some of the most famous works in the Musée d'Orsay include The Starry Night by Vincent van Gogh and The Luncheon of the Boating Party by Pierre-Auguste Renoir.

Sainte-Chapelle

Sainte-Chapelle is a Gothic chapel that was built in the 13th century. It is known for its stunning stained-glass windows, which depict scenes from the Bible. Sainte-Chapelle is one of the most popular tourist attractions in Paris.

These are just a few of the many must-see sights in Paris. With its rich history, culture, and architecture, Paris is a city that has something to offer everyone.
