Platter's South African Wine Guide 2024 is the definitive guide to the vibrant and dynamic wine scene of South Africa. Published annually for over 40 years, Platter's is an essential resource for wine enthusiasts, collectors, and sommeliers alike.

This comprehensive guide features in-depth reviews of over 1,000 South African wines, including iconic vintages, boutique gems, and rising stars. With detailed tasting notes, ratings, and suggested pairings, Platter's provides an invaluable tool for navigating the vast world of South African wines.

Expert Reviews and Ratings

The heart of Platter's Guide lies in its expert reviews and ratings. A team of experienced wine judges, led by esteemed wine critic Neil Pendock, conducts blind tastings of wines from all major wine regions in South Africa.

Each wine is evaluated based on its appearance, aroma, flavor, balance, and overall quality. Wines are rated on a 100-point scale, with scores above 90 considered exceptional. Platter's ratings provide an objective and reliable benchmark for judging the quality of South African wines.

Tasting Notes and Pairing Suggestions

Beyond ratings, Platter's Guide also provides detailed tasting notes that describe the wines' sensory characteristics. These notes include information on the wine's color, aroma, flavor profile, and finish.

To enhance the enjoyment of each wine, Platter's suggests food pairings that complement the wine's flavors and textures. These recommendations help wine enthusiasts create harmonious dining experiences that elevate the enjoyment of both food and wine.

Features and Content

In addition to wine reviews and ratings, Platter's South African Wine Guide 2024 contains a wealth of other valuable content, including:

- Regional profiles of all major wine regions in South Africa
