Misty the miracle cat

Misty the cat was brought to Battersea in 2016 after being found wandering the streets with a severe head injury. The vets at Battersea were not sure if Misty would survive, but they performed surgery to repair her skull and gave her round-the-clock care.

Against all odds, Misty pulled through and made a full recovery. She is now a happy and healthy cat who loves to play and cuddle.

Max the abandoned dog

Max the dog was abandoned at Battersea in 2017. He was emaciated and had a severe skin infection. The staff at Battersea nursed Max back to health and gave him the love and attention he needed.

Max has now found a new home with a loving family. He is a happy and healthy dog who loves to go for walks and play with his toys.

Mia the kitten

Mia the kitten was born at Battersea in 2018. She was born with a cleft palate and had to be bottle-fed by the staff at the Home.

Mia had surgery to repair her cleft palate and is now a happy and healthy kitten. She loves to play with her toys and cuddle with her foster family.

These are just a few of the many stories of miracles and hope that have taken place at Battersea Dogs & Cats Home. The Home provides a lifeline for animals in need, and the staff work tirelessly to give every animal a second chance at happiness.

If you are looking to adopt a pet, please consider visiting Battersea Dogs & Cats Home. You could save a life and give an animal a second chance at happiness.
